SAM JOINS THE TEAM

At Fleet Assess we are ever growing to meet the increasing demand for our trailer services.

The latest addition to the team is new member of staff, Sam Hargreaves, who joins the team as a Mobile Fleet Engineer. Sam joins us from a local reputable business, where he completed his apprenticeship under Training 2000.

As a Mobile Fleet Engineer, Sam plays a vital role in keeping the trailer fleet rolling. His work entails ensuring that trailers are quickly and efficiently repaired should there be any issues.

Servicing the trailer fleet across the North, every day for Sam is different in his Fleet Assess role, which is something he particularly appreciates. Sam lives just outside Blackburn.

MEET THE TEAM: PAUL CLARKE, FLEET OPERATIONS & ENGINEERING MANAGER

In the first of a regular series, we speak to a member of the Fleet Assess team to find out more about their role and background. First up, Paul Clarke, National Fleet Engineering Manager.

What's your background?

I've been in the transport business for most of my career, having worked at Bell Trailers for twenty years before joining Fleet Assess. I have been in my current role for two years now.

What is your role at Fleet Assess?

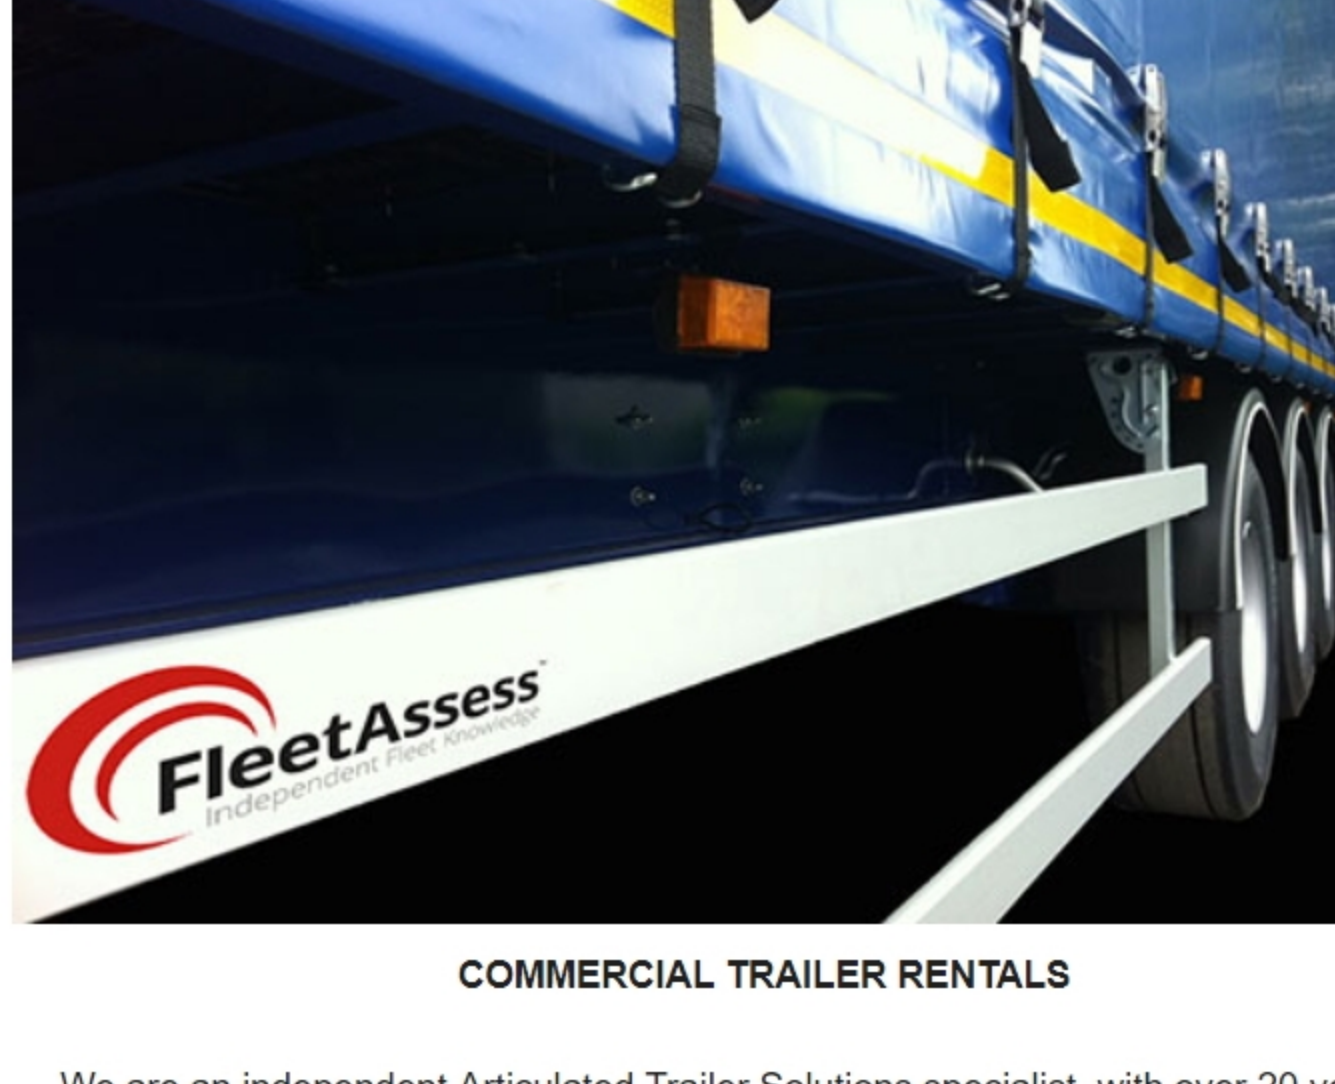

Being the National Fleet Engineering Manager, I manage the maintenance side of the business for our own and our customers fleet. A large part of the role is working closely with customers and suppliers ensuring our Service levels are maintained. I also get involved in all other aspects, including trailer sales and rentals. I see customers to discuss their operational needs and how we can help.

What is interesting about your job?

The highlight for me has to be the sheer variety of work. I enjoy engaging directly with customers and suppliers and help finding solutions to stream line operations. I enjoy the national base I cover, no two days are the same.

What do you do outside of work?

I enjoy watching all kinds sports, including football and I am a life-long Blackburn Rovers fan.
